

Diana Todd-Banks

An Introduction

Suddenly being thrust into the darkest, lowest, loneliest time of your life, unable to walk or talk for 6 months, or barely function for over 3 years, all while living alone, is a difficult image to imagine.

Turning that tragedy into triumph, Diana now works with others to not only overcome their life hurdles and setbacks but to move on and achieve new goals.

Diana Todd-Banks is an award winning best-selling author, writing two and co-authoring 3 with the world best selling authors, she has appeared on TV & radio in Australia and US living there for 20 years. Previously she was a journalist, PR, Event Organiser, Executive Director of an International Chamber of Commerce Director in Los Angeles, US food & wine importer, classic guitarist & teacher. Prior to that she was a lost soul with no direction.

Everything Di shares in her writing, coaching or seminars is based on her life experiences of 48 years business experience in 19 different careers, for 8 different companies in 3 different countries all of which created over 50 physical moves.
